

Press Release

Application Invited for the post of Head master in Ekalvya Model Residential Schools

Tribal Welfare directorate had invited application to the post of Headmaster in seven EMRS in Tamil Nadu. These schools are located at Villupuram, Salem, Nilgris, Tiruvannamalai, Vellore, Namakkal and Kanchipuram. Appointment will be on Contract basics initially for a period of 2 years, which is extendable upto 5 years based on performance. Well qualified, experienced service minded teacher can apply for the post. EMR School are working with the aim of providing quality education to tribal students and to equip them to compete with mainstream students in all spheres of academics and extra curriculum activities. Teachers who have the inclination to work for the upliftment of tribal students can apply. Retired teacher from Kendrya Vidyalaya, Navodaya schools and State and Central government run schools will be given preference. Selection will be based on experience, qualification and attitude to work. Application format can be collected from Directorate of tribal welfare in person or can even be obtained through email on request. Filled up applications should reach the Office of: The director, tribal welfare, chepauk, Chennai -5 on or before 27.08.2018. Application can be also submitted through email ID: ttribalwelfare2018@gmail.com. Selection will be based on personal Interview with the candidates.

Issued By :- DIPR, Secretariat, Chennai - 9.